

The Tutorial Development

Puzzle.

Head to the tutorial appointments page. There you will see links to the Learning Development tutorials, and Academic Librarian tutorials. Click on and browse these two pages to find the answers to the following;

A: This team can help you to find and evaluate information for your assignments, use NELSON and subject specialist databases plus guidance on referencing.

B: This team is a resource for all students that provides free guidance and tuition on any academic skills, such as essay writing, assignment structure, dissertations, critical analysis, presentation skills, and time management.

Creating the keyword.

The keyword for this challenge is two words. To create it, take the first word from Team A, and the second word from Team B. Write this down, then move on to the next challenge!

Remember...

Write down the keyword for this challenge before moving on to the next!